PROLOGUE.

DEDICATED TO OUR BACHELOR FRIENDS.

OUR title page to each and all, most clearly will convey
The reason why we print this book, and send it on its way,
It truly is provoking, that many a noble man
Should still refuse to marry, since marry well he can.

The girls are patient waiting, to hear their lovers' say :—
“My dearest, I'm distracted, please name the happy day,
When, hand in hand together, we may journey on through life,
The one a constant lover, and one a peerless wife.”

But, other things are in this book; 'twas written for your sake.
If bilious, nervous, ailing, Burdock Blood Bitters take.
And if from colds, sore-throat or wounds, you live in dread turmoil, You'll find a quick and sure relief in Dr. Thomas' Oil!

Now don't despair, and rave and swear, you're gone with stomach ills,
Put them to rout, you can no doubt, with Little Burdock Pills.
Do this, and all complaining, forevermore will cease,
And you, and your adored one, may settle down in peace!

You'll happy march together, and when new boarders come,
We think you'll need—we do indeed—a cradle in your home!
And other things you'll also need, and here we have it may be
You'll need this little book of ours—“HOW TO NAME THE BABY.”

Ague.—This well-known and prevalent malarial disease may be prevented by keeping the biliary organs in healthy operation and the secretions pure, by that superb tonic and liver regulator, Burdock Blood Bitters.

Asthma.—The symptoms of this distressing disease are tightness across the chest, difficult breathing, and a wheezing noise accompanying respiration, worse at night or after retiring. During the paroxysm the tincture of Lobelia, given in teaspoonful doses with sweetened water every quarter or half hour, is considered specific, or Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil should be freely rubbed over the throat and chest, and taken in doses of 20 to 30 drops, or more if necessary, to keep the bronchial tubes free, and to render expectoration easy, after the immediate paroxysm is over. Climates should be chosen where the air is dry, pure and bracing.

Abscesses are large sores or cavities in the flesh containing pus, caused by inflammation, and are often of Scrofulous origin, liable to locate upon any portion of the body, and when upon the brain are suddenly fatal. Psoas Abscess or Hip Disease is one of the most serious varieties. Burdock Blood Bitters is Nature's true specific for all tainted with Scrofula or impure blood, and should be resorted to without delay. Sores difficult to heal, however trifling they may seem, should not be neglected. Ulcers, Old Sores, Fever Sores, and all similar troubles, yield directly to Burdock Blood Bitters. Read the cases of Rev. Wm. Stout, Alonzo Howe, Geo. M. N land, and others.

Liver Complaint.—It is the office of the Liver, the largest gland of the body, to secrete the bile, which is Nature's proper cathartic. The Liver, in common parlance, acts as a sieve to cleanse impurities from the blood. During any irregularity of its action or suspension of its functions the bile is liable to overflow into the circulation, giving rise to Jaundice, a sallow complexion, yellow eyes, and causes many very unpleasant and troublesome complaints. Liver Complaint, as it is commonly called, may be known by this and other signs, such as pain in the region of the shoulders, irregular action of the bowels, headache, faint or sick stomach, alternate costiveness and looseness of the bowels, bad taste in the mouth, capricious appetite, etc. Treatment: The system should be aroused by thorough action of the bowels to carry off the overflow of bile, by full doses of Burdock Blood Bitters. This great system regulator should be perseveringly used and proper attention given to the diet. Fat meats and greasy food, hot biscuits, pastry, pickles, and all indigestible or highly stimulating food or drinks should be avoided, including tea and coffee. Ripe fruits may usually be taken, and mild acids, such as lemon juice or orange, will generally be beneficial. Burdock Blood Bitters constitute the great key to health in all Liver or Biliary Complaints.

Boils, Blotched Face, Pimples and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin are caused by impure blood, errors of diet, want of cleanliness, neglect of keeping the pores of the skin open, etc. The general health should be attended to, proper bathing, careful diet, avoiding greasy food, and keeping the bowels, skin, and kidneys in their proper functions are the great auxiliaries to health. Burdock Blood Bitters is the best blood purifier known, eliminating all foul poisonous humors from the system. This great KEY TO HEALTH unlocks all the clogged secretions of liver, bowels, kidneys and skin.

Erysipelas is a blood disease commonly affecting the face, neck, etc., known by burning, inflammatory redness of the skin, with puffy swelling, shivering, languor, headache, nausea, etc., caused by debility, too free use of stimulants, bad air, exposure to cold, improper food, etc. Treatment: Burdock Blood Bitters to cleanse the blood. For a local application, a thin paste of starch, applied cold, or a poultice of cranberries, excludes the air and is very cooling and grateful to the sufferer. In deep-seated or Phlegmonious Erysipelas, painting with Tincture Iodine is curative and prevents spreading of eruption. The bowels must be kept free and the diet light and cooling. Malignant Erysipelas is a very dangerous disease, and medical skill should be consulted.

Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Tetter, Exzema, Scald Head, etc., are troublesome diseases of the skin and blood, and are curable even in their most obstinate form by our Burdock Blood Bitters, which thoroughly and effectually purifies the blood and regulates all the secretions in the most perfect and natural manner.

Constipation is an effect rather than a disease—the result of irregularity in the system, error of habit, or diet. Still, a torpid condition of the bowels should never be suffered. When the bowels become clogged with fecal matter, the general health is sure to be seriously impaired, giving rise to impure blood, headache, piles, fistula, and many serious disturbances. An inactive state of the liver is sure to lead to costiveness. The bowels, in connection with the skin and the kidneys, constitute the grand outlets for impurities of the system and the channels by which diseases are expelled. All strong drastic and repeated purgatives should be avoided, as they tend to debilitate the already weakened condition of the bowels. Injections of tepid water, with a little castile soap, or molasses, or oil, may prove beneficial, but Burdock Blood Bitters is the true remedy, acting upon the bowels and giving them tone without a reacting constipation. Careful attention to diet should be observed—Graham bread, ripe fruits, rice, oatmeal, etc., are most serviceable. Food that sours on the stomach or requires a long time to digest should never be tolerated. Burdock Blood Bitters is the key to unlock the clogged secretions and bring health to the sufferer. Over-indulgence in eating while the bowels are inactive is a prolific source of serious diseases.

Coughs, Colds, Croup, etc., are promptly relieved and soon cured if taken in time by the reliable household remedy, Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. The symptoms and causes of Colds and Catarrhal Complaints are familiar in every household. A Cough, however slight, should never be neglected. "Only a trifling cold," has been the lullaby song of many a victim to their last long sleep. Bad air, close apartments, damp clothing, neglect of wearing flannel and thick-soled shoes, sitting in crowded, hot rooms, sudden exposure to cold draughts of air, allowing the body to cool too quickly after exercise, has marked many a victim for its own on the long death-roll of Consumption. A Cough should be loosened as speedily as possible, and all irritation allayed before it settles upon the lungs; for if the system be weak, the blood tainted with Scrofula, Catarrh or Consumption is sure to follow. At the very outset of a Cold equalize the circulation by warm drinks. One-half a teaspoonful of Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil should be taken internally and the throat and chest bathed with the Oil freely, which, by the aid of perspiration, hot foot-baths and warm clothing, will speedily break the Cold. Habituating the body to the use of the bath is a good preventive of Colds. A Cough, however troublesome, soon yields to Eclectic Oil, which loosens the phlegm and allays irritation.

Catarrh.—This troublesome and often loathsome disease is increasing in prevalence in our country to an alarming extent. Many have Catarrh and don't know it. It is generally induced by neglected colds and the propagation of certain germs in foul atmospheres. It usually fastens upon the scrofulous and weakly constitutions. In its chronic form it is essentially a blood disease, and should be treated locally and constitutionally. Catarrh is a chronic cold in the head, known by pain over the forehead or eyebrows, discharge of matter more or less of the nature of corruption, which causes constant blowing of the nose, hawking of phlegm, etc. Allowed to remain, it often destroys the nasal bones, and all sense of smell is dormant; or the matter falling upon the bronchial pipes causes Bronchitis, and often leads to pulmonary Consumption. Cleanse the system with Burdock Blood Bitters, and tone up the general health by the best hygienic means. Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil has made some remarkable cures in chronic Catarrh and the deafness that often attends that disease, therefore these two remedies should be used in connection.

Croup.—Many a mother has been suddenly startled at the midnight hour by the ominous sounds of this often fatal and always dangerous disease. The hoarse choking cough, the terrible rattling in the throat, and the formation of a tough leathery membrane, are its well-known signs. It is an acute inflammation of the mucous membrane which lines the surface of the windpipe and bronchial tubes. Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil should be used according to accompanying directions, both externally and internally, in doses corresponding to the age of the sufferer. There is no household safe without this prompt and reliable medicine. It costs but a trifle to keep it at hand, and may save much trouble and even life.

Consumption.—This disease, the blighting plague of our nation, is, though often induced by colds neglected, in reality a scrofula of the lungs, and therefore, strictly speaking, a blood disease. Its curability depends upon a prompt treatment with general tonics, blood purifiers, and nutritious remedies. Burdock Blood Bitters supply these medicines in a most skillful combination. The distressing cough will be greatly allayed by Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, taken internally and applied over the chest with friction. Nourishing, plain and wholesome food, gentle, pleasurable exercise, pure air, comfortable clothing and such other means as tend to build up and nourish the system will be indispensable in all cases. See the remarkable cure of Mrs. A. O'Brien, Buffalo.

Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Cramps, Colic, Diarrhoea, and Dysentery.—Cholera is an acute miasmatic disease of the blood, characterized by watery purging, vomiting, coldness, unquenchable thirst, suppressed urine, cramps and collapses. It is not as contagious as many believe, but is spread by the propagation of microscopic germs. Hence the use of disinfectants and great cleanliness should be observed. Cholera Morbus and Canadian Cholera is a modified form of Asiatic Cholera. In the absence of a physician, for any of the above-named diseases, use our Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry according to directions, and Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, applied externally, with the aid of hot packs, fomentations, and the sweating process. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is Nature's specific for all forms of bowel complaints. Diet: Dry toast, ground parched rice, barley water, gruel, or Irish moss jelly, are proper articles of diet in bowel complaints. Slippery elm tea should be used in place of water for thirst. Injections of starch with a dozen drops of laudanum are serviceable after the passages are cleansed.

Chilblains.—Frost-bitten parts will be quickly healed by the early application of Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil.

Corns, Bunions, and other painful difficulties of similar nature are most speedily conquered by the application of the great pain-curing, anti-inflammatory and healing remedy, Eclectic Oil.

Debility.—A sense of indisposition to exertion, loss of strength, faintness, "all gone" sensation, languor and depression of spirits, indicate a want of tone and vitality to the blood. Burdock Blood Bitters is the grand tonic for all cases of general or nervous debility.

Dyspepsia.—This is the prevailing malady of civilized life, and largely due to gross errors in diet, over-eating, too free indulgence in stimulants and over-taxing the stomach with indigestible food, eating too rapidly without chewing the food sufficiently, indulging in hot biscuits, pastry, confectionery, pickles, preserves, etc.

To be dyspeptic is to be miserable, hopeless, confused and depressed in mind, forgetful, irresolute, drowsy, languid and useless. Constipation, headache, heartburn, sour stomach, distress after eating, belching of wind, faintness, dizziness, vomiting and variable or capricious appetite, and fullness and distention of the stomach, are some of the many distressing symptoms of the poor dyspeptic. No medicine can surpass the virtues of Burdock Blood Bitters in this disease. There is scarcely a disease but what dyspepsia will resemble; even serious heart disease may be supposed to exist from the palpitation caused by a stomach distended with gas pressing upon the nerves of the heart. The brain and stomach are in close sympathy by connection of nerves, hence the distress of mind and head. Burdock Blood Bitters has cured Dyspepsia of fifteen years' duration. See the case of A. Burns and many others, whose certificates we will supply.

Diphtheria.—This alarming and prevalent disease partakes of the nature of malignant Scarlet Fever, involving the throat, and being a specific blood poison in the whole system. Its local effects are known by the peculiar ash-colored spots in the throat, other forms of sore throat being simply red. The inflammation should be promptly met, in the absence of a physician, by the internal and external use of Eclectric Oil. For the blood poisoning and general debility Burdock Blood Bitters should be used, and in alarming cases a physician should be early consulted.

Deafness, when it does not proceed from an accumulation of hardened wax, is the effect of colds and a catarrhal inflammation of the head and throat, causing the drum of the ear to become thick and swollen. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is a remarkable remedy for deafness, and is also the best relief for the distressing pain or Ear Ache, and also for swollen glands.

Felons.—These painful swellings commence, like a thorn in the flesh, with heat and throbbing. Eclectric Oil should be at once applied, as this magical remedy draws the inflammation and fire from a bad burn; so, too, it brings relief to the sufferer from a Felon.

Fevers and Congestions are conditions of high inflammatory action of the system with an undue determination of blood to some organ or part of the body. A fever is simply an extra effort of the vital powers to remove some offending or poisonous matter from the system, and should be aided by all means to promote perspiration, equalize the circulation and expel morbid accumulations. Burdock Blood Bitters is the best preventive of those conditions of the system that give rise to fevers. Inflammations are local fevers requiring hot fomentations and similar means to allay irritation. A too sudden degree of cold should never be employed in inflammatory action; hot poultices, fomentations of cloths rung out of hot water, are better. Even in sunstroke hot packs applied to the head relieves pain and congestion soonest. Any schoolboy knows that cold contracts while heat expands or relaxes. Old Dr. Thompson was about right when he said, "Heat is life; cold is death." Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is specific for all local inflammations attended with the characteristic signs of heat, redness, pain and swelling.

Gout, Rheumatism, Lumbago.—These are constitutional and blood diseases and often induced by improper living, exposure to cold and dampness, and by a depraved condition of the blood. Rheumatism attacks the young; Gout more frequently the old and those who live luxuriously. Rheumatism attacks the larger joints, Gout the smaller. A rheumatic pain is a deep-seated one, apparently as if in the bone. Gout comes in sudden twinges of pain. Rheumatism affects both muscles and joints; when transferred to the heart it is very dangerous. Rheumatism neglected or ill-treated often cripples for life by a deposit forming about the joints, stiffening and distorting them by contraction of muscular ligaments. Lumbago is a form of muscular Rheumatism. Rheumatic diseases are best treated by Burdock Blood Bitters for the constitution and blood, while no outward application can at all compare with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, the great remedy for Rheumatism.

Headaches of all forms are nearly always symptomatic, and are curable by keeping the stomach and bowels in order and equalizing the circulation of the blood, all of which Burdock Blood Bitters will best accomplish. Neuralgia or nerve pain may be either in the head or face or along the course of any of the main nerves. When in the hip it is called Sciatica. All these pains are quickly and surely subdued by the grand pain conqueror, the genuine Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, applied according to the special directions with every bottle.

Mumps is an inflammatory swelling of the parotid gland (the glands under the ear), and usually requires no other care than to avoid taking cold and to apply Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil to the painful parts. Those having Mumps, as a rule, cannot relish the taste of any acid or anything sour in the way of food or drink.

Nervous and General Debility, from whatever cause depending, and however manifested, will find its true remedy in Burdock Blood Bitters. In cases of extreme prostration, nervous exhaustion, and even in Palsy, it has been wonderfully successful, restoring lost vitality, imparting nervous energy, regulating the poor circulation, arousing all the secretions and toning up and nourishing the entire system. There can be no stagnation of bad blood, no obstruction to a free circulation of the nervous or vital fluids in those who open the channels of health with Burdock Blood Bitters.

Quinsy, Sore Throat, Inflamed Tonsils. These well-known troubles are best remedied by the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, applied outwardly and taken internally according to full directions on the bottle.

Scalds, Burns, and all accidental injuries, such as Bruises, Wounds of the Flesh, etc., find unfailing relief in Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, which should always be kept at hand for prompt use in case of accidents.

Scrofula is a term applied to a morbid condition of the glandular system, characterized by swellings, enlarged joints, abscesses, pustular eruptions, thickening of the upper lips, sore eyes, etc. It is often hereditary. Consumption is Scrofula of the Lungs. Causes: Want of pure air, sunshine, wholesome food and proper nourishment. The course of Scrofulous persons are liable to disease, as Hip Disease, White Swelling, etc. Goitre or swelled neck is Scrofula affecting the sub-maxillary glands. Burdock Blood Bitters will be found valuable for all scrofulous diseases. Pure air, good nourishing food, and a total avoidance of fat pork and intoxicating drinks, will cure nearly all cases of this obstinate and all-prevalent malady if taken in time.

A Free Gift Worth Sending For.—The case of the Rev. Wm. Stout, of Warton, Ontario, is probably the most wonderful cure of Scrofula on record. He suffered for twenty-three years and his case baffled the skill of the best surgeons, and when pronounced hopeless was cured by Burdock Blood Bitters. The proprietors of this medicine will send a full and interesting history of this wonderful case, written by the reverend gentleman for the benefit of any inquiring sufferer, upon application.

The following is a brief synopsis of the above-mentioned treatise condensed. The full particulars are given in the large circular:

Seventeen Doctors Couldn't Help Him—What Did Help Him—A Wonderful Story.—"For upwards of twenty years I endured the most awful suffering from a cancerous abscess on my neck, and, notwithstanding the skillful treatment of seventeen of the best physicians in Canada, failed to obtain relief. When I had exhausted all the resources of regular medical practitioners, I resorted to nearly all the patent medicines that promised to cure scrofulous and blood diseases, but without any benefit whatever. Finally, in an almost helpless condition, I tried Burdock Blood Bitters.

"I took these Bitters for about four months, with the most astonishing and gratifying results, and for the first time in four years I was enabled to dispense with surgical aid, which I firmly believe I shall never require again for the same disease. More than two years have elapsed since I have had any attack of the disease, and I feel as well and "I have tried Burdock Blood Bitters for one of my children, who was afflicted with an obstinate humor of the blood, and whose face was covered with sores, now perfectly smooth and clean; also my servant treated for swelled neck, and many other cases in our parish to whom we have given and recommended the remedy.

"Knowing that it cured me, and believing that it saved my life, I most earnestly and heartily recommend it to suffering humanity, and urge all who may be similarly afflicted to give it a trial, believing it to be a true specific for all constitutional scrofulous blood diseases, and unsurpassed as a rare healing remedy of great cleansing and curative power.

"Faithfully yours,

"REV. WILLIAM STOUT,

"Warton, County Grey, Canada."

Skin Diseases.—There are many varieties of Skin Diseases, such as Salt Rheum, Ringworm, Herpes, scaly and crustaceous and pustular eruptions, moist and dry humors, etc., but they can mostly be classified together as belonging to the same order, and are curable by perfect cleanliness, good nourishing diet and regular habits. Obtain pure blood by using Burdock Blood Bitters. Salt Rheum and Ringworm may be treated by washing with Carbolic or Sulphur Soap and applying Creosote or Carbolic Acid with a camel's hair pencil. Eclectic Oil may be freely used. For Pimples, Blotches, and unsightly eruptions of the face, Burdock Blood Bitters is the remedy, which may be used internally and externally. It drives the humor from the blood. Boils and blotches may appear thicker for a short time, but are eventually removed.

Urinary Complaints.—The kidneys form one of the most important channels of the system for the outlet of disease. When their functions are disturbed the system is soon loaded with impurities, and other vital organs are overburdened. The kidneys are subject to many diseases, such as Bright's Disease or albuminous urine, a dangerous disease, with many obscure symptoms. Gravel or a precipitation of the solid constituents of the urine, with either an excess of uric acid or of white phosphates, showing a sediment on standing long in a vessel, pain, stricture, etc. Diabetes, an increased flow, a dribbling, or an excess of sugar in the urine. Then there is the disease known as Dropsy, a thin, watery condition of the blood, and irregular action of the kidneys, causing bloating of the body, limbs, etc., wherever the effusion may locate. Chronic disease of the kidneys is usually manifested by pain, weakness, and often heat in the small of the back. There may be a too frequent desire to urinate, or the urine may be too scanty, thick, high colored, with a sediment, or pale, or it may be mixed with blood and slime. There are various causes, according to certain conditions; the chief are poor nutrition, improper circulation of the fluids and bad blood. All these conditions of ill-health may be remedied by the superb diuretic properties of Burdock Blood Bitters, which act in a health-giving manner upon all the secretions, and especially upon those of the skin and kidneys, expelling morbid matter from the blood and promoting a natural tone and healthy action to every organ in the body.

WOMAN'S DISEASES.

There is a vast amount of suffering among the females of our land, from complaints peculiar to their sex, due mainly to indulgence of bad habits, ignorance or neglect. No derangement of the female functions can long exist without involving the entire system into sympathetic suffering. There are two periods in every woman's life when her general health is influenced and often seriously disturbed; the first is the period of change from childhood to womanhood, occurring about the age of fifteen; the other the decline of womanhood to old age, occurring between forty and fifty. At both periods the system undergoes important changes, requiring all the resources of nature, and sometimes of medical art, to maintain the equilibrium of health. It would require a large volume to detail all the various troubles incident to the sex, such as painful periods, suppression, female weakness, with all the exhausting effects and attendant evils, from which she often suffers for years through natural delicacy of seeking medical aid. To all such we would offer hope that they may be effectually relieved and often radically cured, if taken in time, by building up the shattered system, allaying nervous excitement and irritation, and unlocking all the secretions with the great key to health, Burdock Blood Bitters. Every female should read our special circular To Ladies Only. Sent to any address upon application.

Whisky.—A gentleman in Washington in a decline consulted an eminent physician regarding whisky, so highly recommended. "It might afford relief," said the doctor. "Then why not give it?" responded the patient. "Because I have given it to a dozen gentlemen, and all have become drunkards." Burdock Blood Bitters is purely a medicine, not a drink, and never makes drunkards.

Children's Chatter.—"My father has something on his house that your father ain't got," said a little boy to his companion. "What is it?" he earnestly asked. "A mortgage."

Little George was questioned the other day about his big sister's beau.

"How old is he?"

"I don't know."

"Well, is he young?"

"I think so, for he hasn't any hair on his head?"

Little Benny was looking out of the window the other day when a man went by with a saw-horse over his shoulder.

"What do you call that?" he queried. He was given the information he desired, with the question: "Did you never see one before?" "Oh, yes," was the reply, "I saw a man put a log of wood across one the other day, and then he fiddled it."

Master Fred Fenton fell from the top-most limb of an apple tree. He was picked up and carried to the house in an insensible condition.

After watching at his bedside through many weary hours his mother perceived signs of returning consciousness.

Leaning over him she asked him if there was anything she could do for him, now that he was beginning to feel better. Should she bathe his forehead? Should she fan him or change his pillow? Was there anything he wanted?

Languidly opening his eyes and looking at her, the little sufferer said:

"Yes, mamma; I want a pair of pants with a pocket behind."

He got them. —

A Woman in Buffalo given up to die by her Physicians. Her restoration is considered almost miraculous. What cured her. A remarkable case.—It was in the winter of 1883 that the doctors told me that I was dying with consumption.

I had been sick nearly two years, suffering the most excruciating pain in the bowels, where the disease seemed to be located. The liver seemed to be very much out of order and I often vomited quantities of greenish mucous of the most offensive nature. My skin turned to a yellowish hue, and about the face broke out into small dry humors of a very irritating character. I coughed continually and raised a great amount of frightful looking stuff.

I could eat but little food, the stomach rejecting the simplest substances; and the consequent lack of proper nourishment accompanied with loss of sleep and the constant coughing led to a weakness and nervous prostration that lasted for weeks, during which time I suffered more than pen can describe.

I had for years been troubled with sick headache, being aggravated doubtless by a case of catarrh which, as well as the sick headache caused me great distress. The horrible cough gradually abated, and finally left altogether. My appetite returned, those terrible sick headaches left me. I could sleep sound at night and with the taking of one bottle of the Bitters my pulse became strong and regular, the catarrh also disappeared and I have not been troubled with it since.

I steadily lost in flesh and at the time of which I write I weighed but ninety pounds, being a mere shadow of my former self.

In April I began taking Burdock Blood Bitters, and in the following July I WAS CURED. I have taken in all four bottles of the Bitters and at the date of this writing (Oct. 2, '83) weigh one hundred and forty-six pounds, having gained in flesh constantly from the commencement of its use. Those who saw me six months ago consider my recovery almost a miracle, and I myself am no less astonished.

It cured my sister, Mrs. Thomas Haley, of this city, of sick headache to my personal knowledge, and I believe it to be a perfect remedy for that disease.

Any letter of inquiry concerning my case I will cheerfully answer.

Very truly, MRS. ADELAIDE O'BRIEN,

THE NEW BABY.

Muzzer's bought a baby,

Little bits of zing;

Zink I mos could put him

Froo my rubber ring.

Ain't he awful ugly?

Ain't he awful pink?

Just come down from heaven

Dat's a fib, I zink.

Doctor told anuzzer'

Great big awful lie;

Nose ain't out of joyent,

Dat ain't why I cry.

Zink I ought to love him!

No, I wont—so zere!

Nassy, crying baby,

Ain't got any hair.

Send me off wiz Biddy

Every single day;

"Be a good boy, Charlie,

Run away and play."

Dot all my nice kisses,

Dot my place in bed;

Mean to take my drumstick

And hit him on ze head.

"Give me the baby to hold, my dear," is the name of a new song. You won't hear many married men singing it.

One of the marvels of childhood is:
"Why does mother appear anxious to turn my ears and nose inside out when she washes my face?" A wise contemporary says the conundrum will never be solved.

A little girl was reproved for playing with the boys, and was told that being seven years old she was too big for that now. "Why, grandma," she replied,
"the bigger we grow the better we like
'em."

Gospel Facts.—[The following has appeared in nearly every newspaper throughout the United States, and is one of the finest testimonials ever won by a medicine, proprietary or otherwise. Dr.
Crane, (he is a graduate of medicine as well as a clergyman,) gives this evidence without any solicitation whatever. It will repay all to read it]:

"I have never seen a medicine more perfectly adapted to its various applications than Thomas' Eclectic Oil. I was for many years a sufferer from quinsy;
Thomas' Eclectic Oil cured me. My wife and child had diphtheria; Thomas' Eclectic Oil cured them; and if taken in season it will cure seven times out of ten. I am confident it is a cure for the most obstinate cold or cough, and if taken into the head, by the nostrils, two or three times a week, will positively remove the most offensive case of catarrh; and notwithstanding the delicate nature of the mucous membrane of the nasal organ,
can be taken up with perfect impunity.
For deafness and earache it has done wonders to my certain knowledge. It is the only medicine dubbed patent that I have ever felt like recommending, and I am anxious to see it in every place, for I tell you I would not be without it in the house for any consideration. It also operates in asthma as a specific, and wherever it is used it becomes indispensable to household safety. I am ready to give anyone the benefit of my observation, both as to its effects and mode of application, if they will drop me a note making inquiry."

Chronic Rheumatism.—Mrs. C. A. Taylor, 256 Folsom Street, Buffalo, N. Y., says:—"Attacked with sciatic rheumatism, I lay on my bed for six long years. GEORGE COX, 27 Eagle Street, Medina, N. Y.

Something for Baby.

Hang up the baby's stocking,

Be sure and don't forget,

The dear little dimpled darling!

She never saw Christmas yet;

But I've told her all about it,

And she opened her big, blue eyes,

And I'm sure she understands it,

She looks so funny and wise.

Dear! what a tiny stocking!

It doesn't take much to hold

Such little pink toes as baby's

Away from the frost and cold.

But then, for the baby's Christmas

It will never do at all,

Why, Santa wouldn't be looking

For anything half so small!

I know what we'll do for the baby,

I've thought of the very best plan,

I'll borrow a stocking of grandma—

The longest that ever I can;

And you'll hang it by mine, dear mother,

Right here in the corner, so,

And write a letter to Santa

And fasten it on to the toe.

Write—"This is the baby's stocking,

That hangs in the corner, here,

You never have seen her, Santa,

For she only came this year;

But she's just the blessedest baby!

And now, before you go,

Just cram her stocking with goodies

From the top down to the toe."

Some very curiously worded advertisements creep into the newspapers now and then. Here, for instance: "Wanted—A nurse for an infant between twenty-five and thirty, a member of the Church of England and without followers." "Mrs. and Miss May have left off clothing of every description. An inspection invited."

A Witness from the Hoosier State.—Mr. Wm. W. Jones, of Cardonia, Clay Co., Indiana, says: "For the last two years I have been seriously unwell. It would be difficult to describe all the little ailments that have united to render my existence miserable in the extreme, and could they be described, none could fully understand, until they had the same awful experience, the agonies I endured. Pains in the breast, a heavy, dull sensation in my head, faintness at the stomach, weakness in the legs, kidneys badly deranged, restless sleep, complexion sallow, strength all gone. Rendered desperate, I went up into the northern part of Michigan, hoping that a change of climate would do me good. I got no benefit. Last spring I went to the City of Terre Haute and resorted to the artesian baths there for five weeks. One day, glancing through the papers, I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters. In June I commenced taking this medicine, though, I must admit, with but little or no expectation of relief. The result was, however, marvelous and gratifying beyond measure. Since using these Bitters I have not lost a day's work, and while not now a perfectly well man, am infinitely better than formerly. Can conscientiously recommend these Bitters as the very best of medicines. They take right hold, and the effects are always pleasing."

Burdock Blood Bitters.

A medicine which Alexander Lough, Alpena, Mich., says: "Cured me of dyspepsia, from which I had suffered twenty years."

"In my opinion the best preparation for the blood and stomach ever manufactured."—George Campbell, Hopkinsville, Ky.

A medicine which Wm. McFarling, of Belmont, Ohio, says: "Cured my mother of erysipelas and vertigo in a manner surprising."

The Management of Infants.—As soon as the mother has recovered from exhaustion the infant should be put to the breast, as the disturbances common to the coming of the milk are thus often prevented, it better satisfies the infant's craving and lessens the danger of the mother against "milk fever."

For the first few days it should remain with its mother instead of alone in a cradle. "The early application of the infant to the breast hastens the supply of milk. If after a few hours there is no milk drawn, then substitute pure fresh milk from one particular healthy cow, the milk to be diluted with one-third warm water or equal parts, according to the strength of the milk. Do not boil either, and add no sugar.

Cleanliness is of the greatest importance. The warm bath, with a soft sponge and a little castile soap, should be used and the infant carefully wrapped in soft, warm flannel if the weather is cold. After the child is two months old do not use a bath too warm, but accustom it to slightly tepid water or cold water if in warm weather, always avoiding giving it a sudden chill.

Clothing should be light, soft, loose and comfortable, and made to fit without pins. Keep the limbs always warmly clad. A child should sleep alone as soon as old enough to leave the mother, and plenty of sleep allowed, all rocking and jolting should be avoided, and all opiates shunned as poison. Never awaken a child roughly or hurriedly from sleep at any time. Pure fresh air and good venrequire air and sunlight as much as plants and flowers, and all hot house coddling should be avoided.

A nursing mother does not require extra food, but rather a selection in quality that affords most healthful nourishment. A child should be weaned about the seventh or the ninth month, and good cow's milk, with Ridge's Prepared Food, may be used with regularity, avoiding over-feeding.

MR. BLOOMER says: I have used Burdock Blood Bitters with great benefit. I believe I owe it to my life. I had a running sore for years, suffering great pains, and spent probably over $100 with physicians and for medicines, without receiving any benefit. Harrison Bros., druggists, recommended Burdock Blood Bitters. I have used three bottles, and am now, for the first time in over thirty years, a well and strong man.

DISEASES OF CHILDREN.

Young children are subject to many of the acute and some of the chronic diseases of adults, and require similar treatment, only in modified form, care being taken to watch for symptoms by their motions and looks. The recuperative powers of youth are more favorable, and the system more susceptible, to the action of medicine than in age; hence, children often recover from diseases that might prove fatal to those of riper years.

INFLAMMATION AND CONGESTION.—Infants and young children are peculiarly liable to inflammation and congestion of the brain, bowels etc. The signs are those of general fever; the child rolling its head, putting its hands to the head, the pupil of the eye changes, etc., in brain disease. In inflammation of the bowels the child draws its knees towards the bowels; there is local heat, bloating, etc. Inflammation of the lungs is also common with infants.

TREATMENT.—The warm bath—warm fomentations of hops, smartweed, etc.; cloths wrung from warm water should be applied, and slippery elm water should be freely given. Mild injections of castile soap-suds, slightly warm, should be used if the bowels are confined, or, at most, some mild laxative, like senna, syrup rhubarb, or the milk of magnesia, or sweet oil, will be most preferable. For sour stomach, flatulence, etc., a little soda, 5 to 10 grains, with as many drops of peppermint essence in sweetened water, is excellent.

DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, CHOLIC, CHOLERA INFANTUM, and all bowel complaints, find their proper specific in Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, an unfailing remedy in these complaints, as well as for the troubles attendant upon teething. The milk of one selected cow should be used when the mother's milk fails.

FOR SORE MOUTH, CANKERED THROAT, ETC., use borax and honey, drink sage tea or slippery elm tea, or a tea made of gold thread.

Average Life Table.—The following is one of the well authenticated tables in use, showing the average length of life at various ages. The first column represents the present ages of persons of average health, and the second column the number of years they will give us to live.

Crust, Tetter, etc., vary but little in character. Bathing with salt water, sulphur or carbolic soap, and using weak applications of creosote or carbolic acid are curative means. One drachm of sulphur in one bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, applied as a lotion, will cure obstinate skin diseases.

Chicken Pox, Measles and Scarlet Rash are common eruptive diseases with children. The two first two named are contagious, but usually mild if treated with care, avoiding exposure to cold. Chicken pox is an eruption of small pustular pimples, and very slight fever. Catnip, sage, or saffron tea, or light doses of cream of tartar, are all the medicines required.

Measels commences with the usual symptoms of cold or catarrh, followed by fever or rash, or eruption of spots resembling flea-bites. Red spots on the soft palate appear four or five days before the general eruption. Measles runs its course in from three to six days, and is not so dangerous of itself as are the after effects. If cold be taken and the rash falls upon the lungs or some internal organ, then serious troubles ensue, often developing in consumption or some chronic or fatal malady. Treatment in mild cases same as chicken pox. Cleanliness should be observed by sponging with warm castile soap-suds or soda and water, in a warm room, avoiding cold. Warm drinks, ginger tea, or a tea made of pleurisy root and ginger root is excellent, or hot whisky and water may be given to keep the eruption to the surface. Keep the bowels regular and the strength sustained by proper diet, and but little trouble is experienced.

Whooping Cough.—A contagious disease, resembling a common cold, with deep-seated cough coming on at intervals, with prolonged shrill whoop or crowing sound, and ending in vomiting or expectoration of thick mucous. The whoop is a signal of safety, for if suffocation takes place it is before the whoop. A decline of night attacks is a favorable symptom. Take the infant up as soon as the attack comes on, and place in a Home-Made Cream Candy.—To a coffee-cupful of white sugar, add two table-spoonfuls of water to dissolve it, and boil, without stirring, in a bright tin pan, until it will crisp in water like molasses candy. Just before it is done, put in a teaspoonful of extract of vanilla, or lemon, or peppermint essence, and a quarter of a teaspoonful of cream of tartar; when done, pour out into a buttered pan, and when cool enough to handle, work it as you would molasses candy until it is perfectly white, then stretch and lay on a marble slab or moulding-board; with a chopping-knife cut into mouthfuls and lay it on buttered paper on a plate. When children want candy, by all means let them have that made at home, and they will not eat plaster of paris, chalk, starch and poisonous compounds, which derange their stomachs and ruin their teeth.

Delicate Graham Bread (for Invalids).—1 pint graham, 1 pint flour, 1 teaspoonful sugar, 1 teaspoonful salt, 2 teaspoonfuls baking powder, 1 $\frac{1}{4}$ pints milk.

Sift together graham, flour, sugar, salt, and powder, leaving out the coarse bran, which will be found in the sieve; add the milk; mix quickly into a smooth, soft dough, which pour into two small, greased tins and bake at once in a rather hot oven 25 minutes. Protect with paper 10 minutes.

favorable position. Give Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil and apply the same to the throat and chest.

W. N. Palmer, 149 Morgan Street, Buffalo, says: "My child was taken one night, February 1st, with Croup in its severest form, and Thomas' Eclectic Oil being the only remedy at hand, I began giving it according to directions and found it gave immediate relief. I gave three doses, and the child rested well the remainder of the night. I have used it in my family for some time with complete success.

DANSVILLE, PA., Oct. 30, 1883.—About fifteen months ago I suffered very severely from that terrible disease, Catarrh in the head. I commenced using Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. It was but a few weeks until I began to recognize that the offensive breath I had been annoyed with for several years was passing away, and a very sore throat was being cured by its daily use. I have also used the Oil for rheumatism in my family, and can certainly recommend it as an excellent remedy for the above named diseases.

V. A. LOTIER,

Editor Daily and Weekly Record.

NOVEMBER 9th, 1883.—I was badly afflicted with Bronchitis for over a year and was fast losing my voice. Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil has completely cured me. I have no hesitation in recommending it to any who are thus severely afflicted. My daughter was similarly troubled; a few doses relieved her almost immediately. For Coughs and Colds it cannot be recommended too highly. OLIVER J. BELL-ISLE,

Druggist, 23 East Merrimack,

Lowell, Mass.

Scarlet Fever.—Whenever there is a high fever, with sore throat and bright scarlet eruptions, consult a competent physician, for Scarlet Fever is a disease requiring prompt medical aid rather than home treatment. Scarlet Fever and its counterpart, Diphtheria, are among the most fatal diseases of childhood. The general means advised in other low forms of fever may be observed until the doctor comes.

Diphtheria has been successfully

Maple Syrup.— $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. maple sugar, 1 lb. cut sugar, 3 pints water.

Break the maple sugar small, place it on the fire, with the cut sugar and water; boil 5 minutes, skim, and then cool.

This syrup will be relished and useful for those with chronic coughs. Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil cures coughs and colds.

Parched Corn Gruel.—In many cases where the ordinary nourishments are not relished or admissible, a saucer of parched corn pudding, or a cup of gruel, will seldom be refused. Roast the corn the same as coffee is roasted, make it into mush, gruel, or thin cakes; bake lightly brown, or served with milk, it will be very nutritious.

Mustard Plaster.—Take a table-spoonful of treacle, more or less, as desired; stir thick with mustard, and having spread it on a cloth, apply it directly to the skin; it will not blister even if kept on for an hour.

The above is especially adapted for children, on account of its mild nature as compared with the ordinary mustard plaster.

Oatmeal Gruel.—Take two table-spoonfuls of oatmeal, half a blade of mace, a small piece of lemon-peel, $\frac{1}{4}$ of a pint of water or milk, and a dessert-spoonful of sugar. Mix the oatmeal very smooth in a little water, and gradually treated with 15 drops of sulphuric acid to half a tumbler of water, teaspoonful doses being given every two or three hours. Sulphur, administered freely, and full doses of quinine has been another successful plan. Best of all, try Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil.

Rickets is a constitutional disease, a wasting of the system, a lack of proper nourishment, a softening of the bones, and want of proper development. Use the sea-salt bath, give most nourishing food and pure air, and small doses of Burdock Blood Bitters.

Choking.—Invert the body and slap smartly on the shoulders; if this does not dislodge the substance, insert the finger or a flexible pipe into the throat and push the substance downward.

The babies will have the Croup—Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil is guaranteed to cure, or money refunded.

Nursery Powder.—The best to use is very finely powdered fuller's earth, or, in lack of that, fine starch flour. Infants should be well dried after the bath, and this powder applied with a down powder puff. This prevents chafing. Many infants take cold by neglect of properly drying the skin after a bath, and in warm weather are troubled with raw, chafing sores.

A bottle of pure sweet oil or goose oil is a necessary requirement for external use, and also for a mild laxative in many cases of common infantile troubles.

A little anise seed tea is excellent for flatulence, wind, griping, etc. Saffron tea is useful in driving out eruptions.

For an Emetic.—For infants, syrup of ipecac in doses of 5 to 20 drops, according to age, is the safest to use.

Proper Temperatures.—According to General Morin, the eminent French expert, the proper temperature in well ventilated places should be kept at about the following points, viz.: Nurseries, asylums and schools, 69 deg.; workshops, barracks and prisons, 59 deg.; hospitals, 61-64 deg.; theatres, lecture-rooms, etc., 66-68 deg. In dwellings in the United States, custom requires from 65 to 70 degrees.

add the balance; set it over the fire for a quarter of an hour, stirring it constantly. Strain it for use. Highly nourishing.

Mucilage of Gum Arabic.—One ounce of gum arabic in powder, mix well with two tablespoonfuls of honey. Shave a little rind of lemon, clean off the white pith, and cut the lemon in thin slices into a jug; then stir on it by degrees about a pint of boiling water. This is excellent in throat and lung complaints, coughs, measles, etc.

Arrowroot.—Mix 2 tablespoonfuls of arrowroot to a smooth paste with a little water; add to it 1 pint of boiling water with a little lemon peel, and stir while boiling; let it cook till quite clear, and flavor with wine and nutmeg if approved; milk may be used instead of the water if desired.

Slippery Elm Water.—An excellent nourishment, cooling and soothing in fever and stomach and bowel complaints, is made by soaking one ounce of elm bark (the fresh bark of the root is best) in one pint of cold water. This mucilaginous drink may be given freely.

Burdock Blood Bitters cures all diseases of the blood, liver and kidneys, and strengthens the debilitated.

Catarrh.—Not a cent would O. H. Holcomb, editor Seneca County Herald, Bloomville, Ohio, give for the chances of his getting rid of his catarrh before he used Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. Now he would give a good deal for his chances were he similarly afflicted, with the same medicine available.

Inflammatory Rheumatism.—"My father had terrible rheumatism for almost six months. Thomas' Eclectic Oil cured him. It is the best medicine for rheumatism that I am acquainted with."

M. BAILEY,

666 Ellicott Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Deafness.—My sister-in-law was cured of deafness by Thomas' Eclectic Oil. I am using it for the same purpose. It is really a good thing. J. J. KLINE, Ashley, Luzerne Co., Pa.

Coughs and Night Sweats.—$50, $100, $500 and sometimes thousands of dollars are wasted in endeavoring to cure a deep seated cough with doubtful, uncertain remedies. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil costs but 50 cents and effected a wonderful cure for E. H. Perkins, Creck Center, N. Y., who, night after night, for four long years, sat up in bed and coughed till the clothing was wet with perspiration. Two bottles were all he used.

Injuries.—I was in the explosion at the Grand Opera House, Jan. 18, 1883. There I received a bad cut on my knee, and had to take to my bed. Thomas' Eclectric Oil helped me out in almost no time.

CHAS. REED,

354 Jackson St., Milwaukee, Wis.

An injured knee laid me up for nearly a week. Thomas' Eclectric Oil relieved me in one hour. It is the best liniment I ever used, and I consider it an absolute necessity.

FRED A. ALLEN,

Ex-Sergeant of Police, Buffalo, N. Y.

I have used your Eclectric Oil in my family for five years, and take pleasure in saying that it is a valuable household remedy. In cases of Colds, Coughs and Croup, Bronchitis and Rheumatism it has never failed me. I have always used it with perfect success.

BURDOCK PILLS,

Or Small Sugar-coated Granules.

We have introduced to the trade and the public an elegant little Sugar-Coated Granule, designed to act as a mild and gentle purgative, and to fill the requirements of a family Cathartic Liver Pill in a concentrated, convenient and palatable form; easy to administer to children or delicate invalids, whose sensitive stomachs rebel against ordinary pills or cathartic mixtures. They are also admirably calculated to assist the action of Burdock Blood Bitters when a more speedy laxative or purgative effect is desired, and to more quickly arouse the secretions to prepare the system for the alterative and tonic effects of the Blood Bitters. Prepared as they are from the most pure and highly concentrated active principles of vegetaeffect, with a marked and specific action upon the Liver and Kidneys, while regulating the Stomach and Bowels.

Burdock Small Liver Pills are neatly put up in the form of Small Granules, (little grains,) elegantly sugar-coated, and enclosed in air-tight vials, to perfectly preserve them in any climate. Sold by all dealers. Price 25 cents. Samples will be sent by mail, free, on application.

"Uncle William's Pills."—A little girl came into a drug store and asked for five cents' worth of "Uncle William's Pills." The druggist could not make it out, so he sent her away; she returned soon afterwards, and said, "Mother said 'Auntie Billy's,' but I thought it couldn't be right." * * * The druggist fixed it all right by giving her a bottle of little sugar-coated Burdock Pills, recommending them as the best anti-bilious pills he knew of.

Baby's Skies.

Would you know the baby's skies,
Baby's skies are mamma's eyes,
Mamma's eyes and smile together
Make the baby's pleasant weather.

Mamma keep your eyes from tears
Keep your heart from foolish fears,
Keep your lips from dull complaining,
Lest the baby think 'tis raining.

A little boy went to his father crying,
the other day, and told him he had kicked a bee that had a splinter in his tail.

When is a baby not a baby?

When it's a Tea-thing.

When is a disease like a mother about to punish her crying girl baby?

When it is approaching a crisis.

Why is Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil like
Weston, the great walker?

Because it has strong heal-ing power.

Why is a baby like a diamond?

Because it is a dear little thing.

Why is Burdock Blood Bitters like the seventh day?

Because it is the best of all for the weak.

When is a baby like a cannibal?

When it eats its pap.

Why is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry like the winter time? •

Because it stops all summer complaints.

Why are the great lakes like babies?

Because they are subject to squalls.

Why is Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil like hail-stones on a sky-light?

Because it is the destroyer of great pains

There is a difference between Christmas and the Fourth of July. Christmas comes but once a year, and when it comes it brings good cheer. The fourth of July brings three cheers and a tiger.

Why is Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil like windows on the roof?

Because it is the best thing for rheumatics.

Too True.—There are no nice little stories about the return of "The Prodigal Daughter." The son can return and have the finest veal served up for him, but the daughter must stay away.

Why is purchasing Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil like buying ready-made clothing in a tailor's shop?

Because in both cases you must look out for counterfeits.

A Case Much Talked of.

ST. ANNS, VICTORIA CO., N. S., }

November 20th, 1883. }

Gentlemen,—A friend of mine, one John Morrison, was so seriously afflicted with a disease of the kidneys that marked symptoms of Dropsy were rapidly developing. He consulted several physicians, but with little or no benefit, and himself and friends had concluded that death would soon end his sufferings. A month ago he was induced to try your Burdock Blood Bitters. The relief was instantaneous; and now, after using but a couple of bottles, he is daily at his work. I have never known any medicine to perform such an almost miraculous cure; indeed, were I not an eye-witness of the case I could not well believe such rapid recovery from so low a state possible. The case is much talked of in the neighborhood.

Yours, etc., D. J. McLeod, J. P.

C. R. Hall, Gravelle, Ills., writes: In my case it cured a badly ulcerated throat, and in treatment of croup in my children it never failed to relieve.

P. O. Sharpless, druggist, Marion, O., in writing of Thomas' Eclectic Oil, says: One man was cured of a sore throat of eight years' standing with one bottle. We consider it the best medicine sold.

Mrs. Benning, corner Virginia and 14th Streets, Buffalo, N. Y., says: I have been for years a severe sufferer from pains in the back; have tried various applications, but nothing has afforded me relief like Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil. One bottle has entirely cured me, so that I have no return of the trouble.

Jas. I. Foote, the Commodore, Elgin, Ill., says Thomas' Eclectic Oil cured him of Sciatica with one application thoroughly applied. It also cured him of a severe cold and cough. He considers it

The Two Cradles.

There is a cradle, snug and sound—

A mother singing lullabies—

A little child with wearied eyes—

And angels keeping watch around;

And as the mother through the day

Sings to her darling while he sleeps,

Her eyes are turned from him away

Up to the rugged hillside nigh.

And still she sings, as still she weeps,

This gentle, Christmas lullaby:

"Sleep, little one, while angels keep

A holy watch—my darling, sleep."

There is a cradle on the hill—

No gentle lullaby is heard—

There is no mother's soothing word

To break the silence, deep and chill;

A little, narrow, mossy mound—

A hillock 'neath the drifting snow

That robes the quiet burying ground;

A little grave—while on the air

An echo from the vale below

Comes floating to the sleeper there:

"Sleep, little one, while angels keep

A holy watch—my darling, sleep."

For Dyspepsia, Liver and Kidney Complaint, and for impure blood, Burdock Blood Bitters is the most reliable remedy.

MESSRS. FOSTER, MILBURN & Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

It is with much pleasure I inform you that I find Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil not only a relief but a cure for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Catarrh, but also for Kidney Disease. I have used three bottles in the last year, and would feel lost without it. The fact is, Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is the best internal and external household remedy in the world. Yours with respect,

MRS. SARAH LANDRE.

NORWICH, CONN., Dec. 11, 1883.

I am using Burdock Blood Bitters and they are doing me good. I commenced on them the 5th inst., and find my head feels better, my appetite is improving, and in fact I like them, finding them very pleasant to take. Yours truly,

IRA B. ANDREWS writes from Appomattox, D. T., under date of December 21st, 1883, that he was injured by the upsetting of a load of hay, his ribs were broken and his shoulder hurt, and he was bruised generally; but he adds: "Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is bringing me all right."

"I think Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil a wonderful remedy for Coughs, Colds and Bronchitis, and recommend it as the best remedy I ever used."

MRS. M. A. GRIFFIN,

Some Valuable Facts

Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has been on the market twenty-five years and has stood the test. And twenty-five years hence it will be just as popular as it is to-day. Its ingredients are perfectly harmless, absolutely safe and extraordinarily powerful, while its absorptive qualities are wonderful. It absorbs and penetrates wherever applied, and, containing no alcohol, none of its virtues are lost by evaporation. [It does not evaporate, and this fact recommends it strongly to the economical user of medicine.]

The remarkable feature of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is its excellent adaptation to so many different diseases. Internally, for the throat, lungs and nasal organs, and externally for rheumatism, neuralgia, lame back and wounds of all kinds, its effects are of the most pronounced and beneficial character. Inhaled or swallowed, its agreeable vapors pervade the lungs, increasing respiration and conveying its virtues to every diseased part. It hasn't its equal as a cure for a cold or a cough, and as a remedy for catarrh it is without a parallel in the annals of medicine. Its manufacturers guarantee it to cure the most inveterate case of rheumatism or neuralgia in from one to three weeks. Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil, given half a trial, will satisfy the most skeptical that what has been said of it here is the plain and simple truth, without distortion or exaggeration. It is an honest medicine and will do all that is claimed for it. Try it.

Eclectic, from the words Eclectic and Electrized, meaning selected and electrized.

Coloquy vs. Colic-ey.

It cured ze ache;
Now baby's well enough."

There's more truth than poetry in the above midnight drama. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is Nature's true remedy for Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colic, Cramps, and all summer complaints of children or adults.

"Yes, and we've got a new baby; he is orful tired; walked all the way from heaven last night: don't want any row kicked up around here now."

Paid in his own coin: "Don't you think she's pretty?" said the fond mother to the father, as she stroked the baby's silken hair. The father was in a sulky mood, something had disagreed with him, and he replied somewhat curtly: "Oh, all babies are about alike. They look like little monkeys." Just then a neighbor entered, and taking the baby in her lap, said: "Mercy on us, how like its father

IMPORTANT TESTIMONY.

AN HONEST DOCTOR

Recommends Burdock Blood Bitters to his Patients and Cures them

Doctor A. M. Card, Physician and Surgeon, of Alna, Maine, writes under date of January 21st, 1884, to tell us of several speedy cures made by Burdock Blood Bitters. The following are his own words:

Speedy Cures.

"DEAR SIRs:

"Your Burdock Blood Bitters have worked wonders. Cure No. 1—Miss Emily Peaslee, of Whitefield, for several years suffering from chronic liver and stomach trouble, declares that she has received more benefit from your Bitters than from all other medicine ever before taken. No. 2—cure of troublesome chills for several months' standing—Mrs. Bragdon, of Alna, and Hilton of Jefferson, well known citizens. I prevailed on them to try the Burdock Bitters and neither had the second chill after commencing it.

"I have recommended and sold your Bitters in a large number of cases, which has always given good satisfaction and had excellent effect.

"Yours truly,

"A. M. CARD."

Cured of Sick Headache.

FOSTER, MILBURN & Co.

Gentlemen,—I was troubled with very distressing attacks of sick headache which resisted all treatment until I was told to use Burdock Blood Bitters, and rejoice to say that after using two bottles I was cured. I take this opportunity to thank you for the good your Bitters have done in my case.

Very truly,

MAGGIE SULLIVAN,

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER.

The symptoms and treatment of diseases as arranged and classified in this book gives the reader a large amount of medical information which is carefully compiled, and conscientiously offered in the best interests of any who may be suffering from the various diseases or ailments mentioned. In recommending the several treatments, we do so from knowledge gained by watching the effects of the medicine and by actual correspondence with those who were afflicted. We are glad to answer all detailed correspondence from any who are using, or who anticipate trying our preparations, and their letters will receive our first attention.
